

Banks should NOT be given any special privileges regarding the Privacy of Indiana residents. Though I may have a business relationship with a bank, that bank should not have the permission to call me for solicitation purposes.